Hawaiian Telcom Welcomes Jung as Video Content Director

HONOLULU (Tuesday, June 14, 2016) – Hawaiian Telcom announced that Ted Jung Jr. has joined the company as Video Content Director, bringing more than 30 years of experience in the video and broadcast industry. Jung is responsible for the strategy, development, management and marketing of Hawaiian Telcom TV service, which has been available on O’ahu for five years.

“Ted’s extensive experience in working with broadcast networks strengthens our ability as Hawai’i’s only local TV provider to create the best value for our customers,” said Jason Fujita, Hawaiian Telcom’s Vice President – Consumer Sales and Product Marketing. “His vast background and knowledge of video programming enables us to continue growing this business by developing our own unique content and roadmap for the future.”

Jung previously served as a producer for Simple Media Hawai’i where he wrote and produced TV shows, videos and commercials. He is a former managing partner and general manager of Liquid Planet Studios. His career highlights include producing the Merrie Monarch Festivals from 2009 to 2014, the Kamehameha Schools Song Contest from 2005 to 2016, and a documentary film about the Shinnyo-en Lantern Floating Ceremony in Hawai’i, which garnered local, national and international awards and accolades including a 2015 Telly Award. Jung, who began his career as a studio and location technician for KITV, has also served as location and production manager for many national networks including ESPN, Discovery Channel and HARPO Productions.

Jung earned a bachelor’s of arts degree in broadcast studies from Gonzaga University. He serves on the Board of Directors for United Cerebral Palsy Hawai’i.
